Defendant.

Case No. 11-10219 (ALG)

Chapter 7

Jointly Administered Substantively Consolidated

Adv. Pro. No.

COMPLAINT FOR TURNOVER OF ESTATE PROPERTY

Robert L. Geltzer, Esq., as Chapter 7 trustee (the “Trustee” or “Plaintiff”) of Kenneth Ira Starr (“Starr”), Starr & Company, LLC (“S&C”), and Starr Investment Advisors, LLC (“SIA”, and together with Starr and S&C, the “Debtor”), and as the Plaintiff in this adversary proceeding, by his counsel, the Law Offices of Robert L. Geltzer, brings this Complaint against Jay Faires, the defendant (the “Defendant”), and alleges as follows based upon information and belief (acquired from, among other things, available internal corporate documents and records of the Debtor¹, documents and information obtained from other sources, and other publicly available documents):

THE PARTIES

1. Plaintiff Trustee is the duly appointed Chapter 7 Trustee for the Debtor. The Trustee is a resident of the State of New York and is a licensed New York attorney maintaining an office at 1556 Third Avenue, Suite 505, New York, New York 10128.

2. Upon information or belief, the Defendant is an individual whose last known address is 2869 Durand Drive, Los Angeles, California 90068.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

3. The United States District Court for the Southern District of New York has jurisdiction over this adversary proceeding under 28 U.S.C. § 1334. By virtue of 28 U.S.C. § 157(a), and the Amended Standing Order of Reference, dated January 31, 2012 of Chief Judge Loretta A. Preska of the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York, this adversary proceeding is automatically referred to the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the "Bankruptcy Court").

4. This adversary proceeding is a core proceeding under, among other things, 28 U.S.C. § 157(b)(2)(A), (E), and (O). Because this is a core proceeding, the Bankruptcy Court has jurisdiction and power under 28 U.S.C. § 157(b) to hear and determine this adversary

¹ The Trustee's Court-appointed accountant's due diligent review of the Debtor's books and records revealed, in part, that significant services were performed by Debtor for the benefit of certain of its clients. Over the course of many years, it was found that the Debtor billed those clients for those services performed: (a) on an hourly basis, or (b) by monthly retainer, or (c) on a transactional basis (i.e., deal by deal, % income, etc.). The Trustee's accountant also reviewed client account histories and cash receipts journals in order to determine if the amount claimed from the Defendant might be in need of adjustment, based on Debtor's records, and made such adjustments, if required, in order to obtain corrected balances due from clients, including the Defendant. Although the Trustee's accountant made every reasonable effort to determine the appropriate dollar amounts, it is possible that additional relevant documents were neither in the Debtor's possession nor readily obtainable by the Trustee or his accountant. If such documents exist, they might affect the amounts being sought herein. Similarly, it may be possible that situations, either undocumented or otherwise unknown to the Trustee, may exist which, in turn, would result in upwards or downwards adjustments of certain of the amounts being sought herein (e.g., unissued credits, agreed upon discounts, etc.). Absent these unknowns, the Trustee's accountant believes that the amounts being sought herein are a reasonable reflection of amounts owed to the Debtor's estates.

proceeding. The Plaintiff consents to the entry of final orders or judgments by the Court if it is determined that this Court, absent consent of the parties herein, cannot enter final orders or judgments consistent with Article III of the United States Constitution.

5. This adversary proceeding is commenced pursuant to the United States Bankruptcy Code (the “Bankruptcy Code”) §§ 101, 105(a), 541, and 542; the general equity powers of the Bankruptcy Court; the general common law; and it is also commenced pursuant to Federal Rules of Bankruptcy Procedure (FRBP) § 6009, 7001, and 7008 to recover money or property of the estate.

6. Venue of the subject Chapter 7 case and of this adversary proceeding in this district is proper pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1408 and 1409.
